

CASE STUDY: THE VALUE OF ONBOARDING

BACKGROUND: A western financial institution with $30B in assets needed a program to welcome new customers. Harland Clarke developed an onboarding program that included a welcome package designed to increase the number of banking relationships among the bank's customer base. When Harland Clarke received a new account file, we sent the account holder a welcome package from the bank.

RESULTS:

38% Income from new account holders increase

Sticky product penetration increased:

21% Online banking

33% Bill pay

30% lift in the number of accounts per household

50% Three-service household increase

400% Four-service household increase

What does this all mean?

Welcoming and engaging account holders during the first 90 days of an account opening, can help deepen account holder relationships.
